Author's Response To Reviewer Comments

Close

Dear Professor Maria Attard,
Editor of Case Studies on Transport Policy (CSTP) journal

We would like to thank you as the editor for this opportunity for us to respond to three reviewers' comments of our paper submitted to CSTP journal entitled: Technology anxiety and social influence towards intention to use ride-hailing service in Indonesia, co-authors with Professor Achmad Nizar Hidayanto, Professor Sherah Kurnia, Mrs. Ratna Juita, Ms. Kemala Andiyani, Ms. Nabilla Hariyana, Ms. Priscilla Tiffany, and Ms. Teresa Prima Tangis Pertiwi.

The comments from the reviewers have helped us improve our paper, not only the qualities of the presentation but also the writing per se. We have extensively enhanced our first manuscript based on the reviewers' comments. For instance, we added a subsection in Section 6 to respond to Comment 9 of Reviewer 2, added some new paragraphs, and refined some in almost all sections based on the reviewers' comments. We structured our rejoinder in a separate file and highlighted all the changes in our improved manuscript so that the reviewers could easily follow the refinements we made.

We do hope the improvements we made can address all the reviewers' comments. We will be happy to re-improve our manuscript further if required.
Thank you for considering us to publish to the CSTP journal.

With Best Regards,

Dedi I. Inan, PhD
